

Blogs and information at:
AmericanComposersFestival.org

Albert Bierstadt,
"Sunset on the Plains," courtesy of the Museum of the American
West, Autry National Center,
88.108.22

The Bowed Piano Ensemble

PACIFIC SYMPHONY PRESENTS
AMERICAN COMPOSERS FESTIVAL 8

THE WEST 2008

Music Inspired by the American Frontier

Mon • Feb 4 • 8PM

SPECIAL FESTIVAL CONCERT

Vikings of the Sunrise

Samueli Theater

The Bowed Piano Ensemble — Stephen Scott, director
Scott's "Vikings of the Sunrise" was hailed by Billboard Magazine as "...the first truly provocative work of new music for the '90s."
Student tickets: $10

Thu, Fri & Sat • Feb 7-9 • 8PM

HAL & JEANETTE SEGERSTROM
FAMILY FOUNDATION CLASSICS SERIES

An American Tale

Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall

Carl St.Clair, conductor

The Bowed Piano Ensemble — Stephen Scott, director
Pacific Chorale — John Alexander, artistic director
Music inspired by the rugged panoramas of the American West, including Copland's "Billy the Kid," Grofé's "Grand Canyon Suite" and works by festival composers-in-residence Cacioppo and Scott.

Student tickets: $10 online

Accompanying non-students $20 online

Student Rush on night of concert: $20

Mon • Feb 11 • 8PM

CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY presents

Portraits of the American Frontier

Memorial Hall Auditorium

Chapman University

Daniel Alfred Wachs, conductor

Curt Cacioppo & Grace Fong, piano

Chapman University Choir — Joseph Modica, conductor

Chapman Chamber Orchestra

Members of Pacific Symphony

Music by Cacioppo, Dvorák, Farwell, Copland and Harris, plus Pare Lorentz's classic documentary, "The Plow that Broke the Plains", accompanied by Thomson's iconic film score in a rare live performance.

Student tickets: $10

Festival Sponsors: Narratus Solutions, Sandy & John Daniels, The James Irvine Foundation, National Endowment for the Arts, Deirdre & Doug Smith, American Express Philanthropic Fund

Media Sponsors: KOCE-TV, Classical KUSC

The Center's Renee and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall and Samueli Theater are located within Segerstrom Center for the Arts.

Student tickets online at PacificSymphony.org/StudentRewards
(714) 755-5799